

Shawn Palmer

SUBJECT MATTER EXPERTISE

A lifelong student of leadership —both literally and figuratively— Shawn, as a Masters candidate in Management and Leadership, and having succeeded and failed across the spectrum of leadership environments, from business and the military to academia and volunteerism, has curated a leadership curriculum which is fun, engaging and impactful, and achieves results!

LEADERSHIP DELIVERABLES

Flagship Keynote Presentation: “KINDNESS in LEADERSHIP”

Infused with both humor and real-life examples of service to others, sharing our most precious gift of engagement with those around us is the powerful call-to-action; while the Japanese art of Origami provides the unique takeaway.

Team-Building & Leadership Training

Via hands-on projects and exercises, this modularized leadership curriculum is fully customizable to your organization’s identified learning objectives.

Forum/Panel Member/Moderator, Luncheon/Conference Emcee

KEYNOTE and WORKSHOP ENGAGEMENTS

If your company is seeking opportunities to grow, your nonprofit board is continually tasked with accomplishing more with less, or your student group seeks to benefit from that ultimate force-multiplier, leadership, Shawn is poised to engage and empower your organization with a transparent connectedness and humor-infused delivery, enabling his sharing of personal experiences to resonate and provide a relatability regarding what is required to serve as a leader.

- US Base Bagram, Afghanistan, and US Navy Reserve Region Northwest
- Citizen Corps Leadership Summit and Partners in Preparedness Conference
- Central Washington University and Tacoma Community College
- DECA Regional Leadership Conference and DECA Area Conferences
- Civil Air Patrol, Youth Aerospace Program, Washington Business Week, Junior Achievement of Washington and Seattle Parks & Recreation

What’s Being Said...

“Shawn was kind enough to cram days worth of leadership training into a few hours for our NW Expo course. The task alone would daunt most, but Shawn followed through with clarity, expert knowledge, and a good sense of humor. Through his short individual and team-building exercises, we were all able to learn new leadership techniques as well as a little more about what makes us do what we do. Internal motivation is a true key in leadership and Shawn’s training pointed that out well. It was a fun way to learn more about ourselves and others. Thank you, Shawn, for the great course!”

Yelena V.,
Seattle Children’s Hospital

Contact, Engage, Stay Connected!

E-mail
Shawn@TheLeadershipCoalition.org

LinkedIn, Facebook
The Leadership Coalition

Twitter, Instagram
@LDRSHPcoalition

